

This publication was funded by the European Union's COSME Programme. The content of this publication represents the views of the author only and is his/her sole responsibility; it cannot be considered to reflect the views of the European Commission and/or the Executive Agency for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (EASME) or any other body of the European Union. The European Commission and the Agency do not accept any responsibility for use that may be made of the information it contains.

Find out more:
wineandsenses.informamuse.com

tasting heritage

WINE & senses

heritage

tasting

Heritage, wine and senses.

Four wine regions with World Heritage Sites listed by UNESCO and linked by wine and cultural heritage come together to build a unique tourist product: Wine & Senses.

Live a unique sensorial experience visiting the Wine and Senses Routes in Spain, Portugal, Hungary, Czech Republic and Italy; discover their territory, explore their history, wines, traditions and ways of life...

Wine and Senses: tasting heritage

Cinque Terre (Italy)

The Ligurian coast has an exceptional landscape formed of terraces of vineyards and stone walls facing the sea that still maintains its traditional way of life.

Cinque Terre were listed as UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997 to preserve a cultural heritage and a landscape where the harmonious interaction between man and nature gave birth to special wines famous all across Europe since the 15th century.

Don't miss it!

Mád/Tokaj (Hungary)

The Tokaj region, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2002, boasts one of the world's most unique terroirs that gives exceptional dry and sweet wines, mostly based on the leading local grape, Furmint. With over 1/6 of the region's vineyards in its outskirts, the village of Mád is a major centre of production where winemakers of the Mád Circle Association strive to create a style and quality of wines that is unique to this locality.

Don't miss it!

Douro Douro (Spain/Portugal)

2 countries, Spain and Portugal, crossed by the Douro River, that flows for more than 850 km. A unique and rich territory with more than 14,000 heritage elements, spaces listed as World Heritage by UNESCO, more than 85,000 hectares of vineyards, 10 wine designations of origin, more than 600 wineries, more than 300,000 hectares protected by Natura 2000 Network, the largest UNESCO Biosphere Reserve in Europe...

Don't miss it!

South Moravia (Czech Republic)

Situated in the southeast of the Czech Republic not far from Brno, the historical capital city of the Margraviate of Moravia, the district of Znojmo and Břeclav covers almost half of the total area of Czech vineyards with several protected areas linked to wine production defining exceptional cultural landscapes such as those of the Podyjí National Park, Pálava and Lednice-Valtice declared World Heritage.

Don't miss it!

